

The Butler Weekly Times.

VOL. XXXVI.

BUTLER, MISSOURI, THURSDAY, MARCH 12, 1914.

NUMBER 21

ON THE WING.

Tinker Zinn is moving up near Drexel.

Preston Porter, and family visited Lincoln Zinn Sunday.

Geo. Crooks spent Sunday afternoon with Grant Oldham.

The cashier of the Amoret Bank Sundayed with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. C. Pahlman.

A Baptist meeting was held at the home of Geo. Zinn Sunday.

Rev. Haynes preached his farewell sermon Sunday at the M. E. Church in Virginia.

Wm. Ewing hauled hay from N. M. H. Nestlerode's Friday.

Frank Oldham is saving his new buggy for better roads.

Crickett Hedger went with Robt. Denning's car to Montana. He is a good safe hand with stock.

John Foster, Jr., was out Sunday on a colt and said it just went fine for the first time and it just went all ways.

Geo. Lockridge is moving on the Peter Crooks farm just vacated by L. Zinn.

There is some inquiry about pasture already. Those having pasture for stock let it be known. Also price per month.

Geo. Crooks took dinner at the home of Grant Oldham Sunday.

Mrs. E. Nestlerode and Mrs. Dolie Oldham and two daughters visited with Mrs. Dawson Monday.

Ralph Hughes was at the county seat on business Monday.

Geo. Pahlman and wife visited at the home of his parents Sunday.

One of Mr. Peterson's little children took sick on the road home from school Monday and Uncle Geo. Zinn took him in until Mr. Peterson came after him.

Ralph Hughes and family visited Cornelius Porter Sunday and reports him gradually growing weaker.

Mrs. Dawson called on Mrs. Tanzy Smith Saturday and reports Mrs. Smith not quite so well at this writing.

Mesdames Dan Orear, G. W. Garner, S. N. Kinion and daughter, Miss Orval, visited with Miss Ada Oldham Tuesday evening.

The W. C. T. U. met at Mrs. Henry Oldham's last Thursday afternoon and will meet at Mrs. Clate Wolf's the 19th of March.

Mrs. Dan Orear, wife and son were shopping in Amoret last Friday.

There will be preaching at the Christian church next Saturday night and Sunday morning and night.

S. N. Kinion and wife visited with their daughter, Mrs. Robert Orear, near Foster Friday and Saturday.

Henry Oldham and wife visited her brother, Mr. Sunquist, Monday.

Mrs. T. J. Hockett and Mrs. Monroe Gregory visited at the home of Squire Coats in Elkhart township Monday evening.

Ed Barnes, wife and children were county seat visitors Monday.

Rex Preston filled his regular appointment at Concord Sunday and quite a crowd was present.

Ed Jackson and four children moved up from St. Clair county and will live with Grandma Jackson this summer. He had the misfortune to lose his wife a short time ago.

Frank Porter is on the complaining list.

Uncle Geo. Zinn is certainly making some improvements on his land by cutting the brush along the road and we see the road drag is taking in that part.

On Thursday afternoon, March 5, at 2:30 the W. C. T. U. ladies met at the home of Mrs. Grant Oldham.

good wide-awake meeting was held. The regular order of business was followed by a question box that proved instructive as they were ably discussed by the members. Several visitors were present and we extend a hearty welcome at all times to visitors. One new member was secured. The president asks each member to study the handbook carefully and be prepared for the contest that will be held at the next meeting at the home of Mrs. Clayt Wolf of Virginia. The same rules that govern a spelling contest will be observed, only questions and answers (instead of words) will be used from the hand book. Special music and other entertainment will be on the program. We are hoping for great things for this work. Come.

Margaret J. Greenup, a B. H. S. student, has returned to school after an absence of two weeks on account of sickness.

N. M. N.

Virginia and Grand

View Pick-Ups

Several from this vicinity attended the pie supper at Green View last Friday night, March 6.

Miss Olive Judy, teacher at Crooks, spent Saturday and Sunday with home folks.

Ralph and Carrie Harper, who are attending high school in Butler, spent Saturday and Sunday with home folks.

J. A. McElroy of Lawrence, Kansas, was a visitor at the Warren Ayres home Friday evening.

Mrs. J. D. Whinery went to Drexel Saturday to visit with relatives a few days.

T. J. Harper spent several days in Butler last week.

Mrs. E. E. Eggleston spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Warren Ayers.

Miss Ethel Crimsley called on one of her schoolmates, Mayme Sacre, Sunday afternoon.

Miss Luella Conard spent Thursday night of last week with one of her pupils, Ola Ayers.

Miss Una Judy, teacher at Eldorado, spent Saturday and Sunday with home folks.

Miss Luella Conard spent Wednesday night with one of her pupils, Mayme Sacre.

Mrs. Wm. Ayers was taken very sick Saturday night.

Miss Amy Eggleston spent Sunday with her cousin, Ola Ayres.

C. C. Swarens of near Foster, gave a lecture at Virginia Friday night.

T. S. Grimsley was transacting business at the county seat Monday.

J. F. Boyer has been very poorly.

Mrs. John Turner, who has been visiting in Butler for several days, returned home Wednesday.

The large bridge east of Grand View was completed the first of the week. This makes the eleventh concrete bridge that has been built in Charlotte township since Sept. 1.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. McCall spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Lent.

The W. C. T. U. committee on entertainment has secured Miss Frances Catron of Butler to give an entertainment at the Christian Church at Virginia, March 20.

Miss Rannie Butler, who has been working at Lewis Lents spent Sunday with home folks.

There will be a pie supper at Mt. Zion, Friday night, March 20. Girls are invited to bring pies and boys, well-filled pocketbooks.

Have a few farms in the corn belt in Iowa to trade for Bates county farms. Phone or write me and I will see you personally and list your farm. I charge 2 1/2 per cent commission if I get you a sale or trade, any size farm. Chas. R. Bowman, Amoret, Mo.

Elkhart

Well, after a lay off of several weeks we will try to write a few lines. We have got a good excuse for not writing. I had a carbuncle on the back of my neck and if that isn't excuse enough for not writing, I don't know what would be. Doctor Amyx came out a couple of days and cut around on my neck with a big knife. It has about got well.

Tom Rayborn was a pleasant caller one day last week. He came over to see how we were getting along.

The writer and wife visited at G. W. Armentrout's one day last week.

Col. Lockridge and wife, and C. B. Henderson and wife called to see the writer while he was on the sick list.

John Page and wife called to see Johnny while he was laid up with his pet.

John Stephens and wife were pleasant callers one night last week.

Guss Bruner has moved to one of Mr. Clapp's farms for this year.

We see that Ed Williams was the lucky one to get the postoffice at Butler. We think that he was entitled to it for he has been one of the wheel horses in the Democratic party. We wish him the best of luck.

Col. Lockridge, Verge Henderson and Jim Gregory got a fine load of wood for the writer while we were knocked out. Many thanks.

The Westover saw mill was sawing last week.

Last Thursday, March 5, being Mrs. Ed Bailey's birthday a number of her friends pulled in with well filled baskets of all kinds of the finest things to eat that anybody could wish for. Those present were: Mrs. Jim Maddy and daughter, Ben Coats and wife, Elsie Hand, Mrs. Tom Rayborn, Mrs. John Page, Mrs. Fritts and daughter, Goldie, Mrs. Minnie Allen,

Mrs. Hand, Mrs. Maggie Scott, Mrs. Lou Scott, Mrs. Ella Scott, Mrs. Annie Halford and John Fritts. They report a good time and all left wishing Mrs. Bailey many more happy birthdays. The writer didn't get any of the cake.

Mr. Lewis sawed wood for W. A. Crumley and Rome Morris last week. Their wives won't have to cut wood this summer.

Ben Porter has moved to the Pardea farm east of Amsterdam.

Jim Kershner has moved back to his old place. We are glad to welcome them back.

John Stephens and wife spent last Sunday at Will Kershner's.

I see that my old friend John Patterson has got to be deputy game warden. Well, we think that he will be all right. We can remember when John used to drive the little old white mules, he could run the straightest corn row of any boy around Butler.

According to reports there will be another wedding in Elkhart soon.

Mrs. Cora Custer is reported on the sick list at present.

Even Spillman and Jess Herring left one day last week for Cedar County to make that their future home.

Mrs. Myrtle Spillman and her best fellow attended church at Mt. Vernon last Sunday night.

The dance at Lige Spillman's last Monday night was alright and they all report a "hog killing" time.

Clarence Spillman went to dances last Saturday night and he said it was not a very good night for dances either.

JOHNNY.

S. C. R. I. Reds eggs for hatching, $1.50 for 15. S. C. W. Leghorns English and Yesterlaid strains, $2 for 15. Pearl Austin Rosser, Phone 398, Butler, Mo.

Complete Display of New

Spring Suits and Coats

Now Here Ready for You to see—A Rich Display of Stunning New Models, Superbly Tailored, from the most pleasing of the New Season's Fabrics

We Show Suits from $15 to $25
We Show Coats from $7.50 to $20

New Pumps $2 to $3.50
New Draperies 8 1/2 c to 50c
New Cheney Bros. Foulards
New Rugs, all sizes
New Silk Allovers
New Tub Silks
New Muslin Underwear
New Childrens Dresses 48c up
New Fancy Ties
New Fancy Hat Pins
New Snow Flake Voiles

New Embroideries 5c to 50c
New Printed Voiles 15c to 50c
New Moire Silks
New Petticoats, all shades, $1.00
New Fancy Crepes 10c to 45c
New Chiffon Taffetas
New Fancy Hair Pins
New Royal Waists
New Crepe Voiles
New Colored Silk Hose
New R. & G. Corsets

Sam'l Levy Mercantile Company

"THE STORE THAT PLEASURES AND SATISFIES"